HELEN'S legacy

Helen Fitzgerald was born in Memphis, Tennessee in September 1906; the youngest of 5 children. In 1926, she married Phil Gumpert and eventually moved to Bingham Avenue in South St. Louis to raise their 7 children, including our founder, Sally Syberg.

Helen loved growing peaches and making pies for our Original Syberg's Gravois location to sell for the dessert specials with her daughter. Helen held various jobs in the service industry including "Rosie The Riveter" during WWII at Small Arms. While working at The Gables, Stan Musial, a regular, suggested she go work at the MAC where she stayed for 25 years.

Helen passed away in 1984 and continues to leave her legacy here at Helen Fitzgerald's Irish Grill & Pub.
